Good Day Everyone, Our last meeting and discussion related to the Wilcox Oil Company Superfund Site was held on April 14, 2015. At that time we discussed site issues and planned for our next meeting to coincide with the Open House that was being schedule for May 19, 2015. As a reminder, we have time scheduled for 230pm to 330pm on May 19, 2015, to meet with you and provide an update on site activities. Of course, if this time does not work with your schedule, we will be at the library for the Open House from 4pm to 6pm.
